

Course Conclusions

or

Can Crime be Faceless?

A Criminological Perspective on Corporate Crime

Assistant Prof. Dr. Anna-Maria Getoš, LL.M.
Zagreb Faculty of Law

General Course Topic

- Crime prevention through criminal law and security studies
- When Corporation Kills - Multifaceted Perspectives on Faceless Crime
- The case of „Karlovačka pivovara“

Case Discussion

- The case of „Karlovačka pivovara”
  - Causing death through poisoning with carbon dioxide (Feb 2007)
  - Ist instance 2010, IInd instance 2012
  - Endangering life and property through generally dangerous actions and means
- Multifaceted Perspectives on Faceless Crime
  - Legal perspective
  - Criminological perspective
  - Victimological perspective
  - Individual/collective responsibility
  - Risk society (causing danger/causing harm)
  - Era of punitivity

Course Question

- Can Crime be Faceless?
- How does the introduction of criminal liability of legal entities prevent crime?
- Lack of solid empirical findings and evaluation studies – we create, enforce and keep changing legal provisions and criminal policy – without exactly knowing how this will work out
- Do we need criminal liability of legal entities?
- Is Crime Faceless? Phenomenology!
- Crime ≠ any tragic event

5th International Dubrovnik Spring Course 2013

THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING